Executive Changes in Index Multimedia

The Board Meeting of September 12th, 2008 appointed Mr. Takuo Tanimoto as new President and Chief Executive of Index Multimedia. Also, the board appointed Mr. Jean-Paul Ansel as new director and Directeur Général Délégué.

Mr. Takuo Tanimoto, after his career at NEC, one of the leading Japanese electronics companies, and a U.S.A high-tech venture company, has been in Mobile Internet Industry since its evolving period of 2000 in Japan. He had led mobile contents business and expanded the business from around 3 billion yen, which is previous fiscal year's record in FY2001 when he was in charge, to 12 billion yen in 4 years at Cybird Co. Ltd, one of major mobile contents provider in Japan, as General Manager in charge of Mobile Contents Division of the company. After he joined index group in 2007, he has become in charge of oversea business as Executive General Manager of Global Headquarters of Index Holdings. He dedicates himself to Index Multimedia based on France as a result of Index Holdings decision to reinforce French Mobile business.

Mr. Jean- Paul Ansel, after having led a successful investment banking career, decided to focus on turn around situations since the year 2001. Between 2002 and 2004, as general manager of Pennel and Flipo in Roubaix, he transformed the company which had been loss making for years and significantly indebted by defining a clear strategy focusing on becoming a specialist of the technical rubber sheets. After his revival plan and execution of it, the company is now profitable and become one of the world leaders in the industrial sectors where it operates. In 2005 and 2006, he took over a Belgian company which is now the leading European manufacturer for baggage carts and other equipment related to the air transportation industry before selling it to private investors. In the second half of the year 2007, he has been appointed as the advisor of the president /main owner and general manager of Vilo Groupe, a French publishing company based in Paris. Vilo Groupe is well known through various publishing houses such as Ramsay, Complexe, L'Amateur and Plans Ponchet, in particular. He will remain until September 2008, a member of the Board of Directors of Métaux Spéciaux, a chemical company which is the world leader in the sodium industry.

During the last two years, Mr. Plaisance has led Index Multimedia restructuring by refocusing Index Multimedia on its core market, targeting new activities and adapting company's organization and structure to the market.

The new management, together with existing top management, ambitions to continue and boost company's improvement and wishes Index Multimedia to be an influential company in the market.
